RAZOR AND KNIFE

Slashed in the Air in a Fight on North Main.

TWO WOMEN COMBATANTS

Mattie Reed and Cora Bevins, Colored, Carved Each Other,

An exciting and desperate razor an knife, hair pulling and face pummeling match took place yesterday afternoon be tween Cora Beyins and Mattle Reed, tw dusky damsels of North Main street. The fight occurred in full view of a large number of spectators near El Santiago, or North Main street, and created great excitement, as both girls had deadly weapons which they tried to use with a ven geance known only to those having a trais the girl who slashed Robert Kinnemar in the face last winter and came very nea reaching his jugular vein. The young man's face was ruined by the scar. Yesterday she wielded the same razor in an effort to end the existence of her annag onist, Cora Bevins. Cora is said to hav drawn a pocket knife and cut a gush b the side of the Reed girl's face, near the temple. The two girls fought like demon had not bystanders and Policeman Mc-Millan Interrupted. How Mrs. Pinkham HELPED MRS. GOODEN.

"I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female trouble and did nothing for them. Of course I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb and inflammation of ovaries. "I underwent local treatment every nav for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permis sion to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effeets of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of her Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine.

"The first remark that greets me now is 'How much better you look!' and you may be sure I never hesitate to tell the cause of my health."-Mas, E. J. GOODEN, ACKLEY, LA.

SAW EACH OTHER OFTEN

But They Had Grown Up Total Strangers.

Many Wichita people know the Beckwiths mentioned in the following story from the Newton-Republican:

nent of the meeting of Harry Beckwith and his mother, who had been parted for seventeen years. Further investigation proves the story is stranger than that While it has been seventeen years since he mother saw her son to know him, it is the first time in his life that he has aly seen his mother. Harry Beckwith was born in Valley enter, March 28, 1872, about a month afer the death of his father. The mother and child came to Newton some time aferward and both took sick. They were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eberle, of this city, who took care of them provide for herself and babe, so she gave the little one to Mr. and Mrs. Eberle. On were drawn and the child became Harry were to serve as the guids and bulwark | mother, and never knew but what she was in the document that the mother was Justiman was a great lawyer. We can never to make herself known to her son of her she was in Leadville. In May, 1880, the Eberles moved from family over for a short visit. Harry's mother was then running a boarding She had married again, her name being Hatton. She visited with her 16 year-old son eften in those days, but never violated her agreement. Through one of those strange processes which the human mind feels but knows not, Harry distinctly to this day the little presents among them a pair of white rabbits, she gave him. From Leadville she went to Waco, Texas, and thence to Ellis county Kan., which is now her home

Meanwhile the Eberies moved from Red Cliff to Leadville, where they lived a few years and then came to Newton, Beckwith started east, working at Pueblo and other places till December, 1891, when he landed in Newton. On July 24, 1892, he married the eldest daughter of O. N. Eberic, brother of W. H., who had a short time obfore revealed to him his identity When Harry was married he took his right name. He often tried to find his mother, but finally gave her up as dead went to Kansas City. In 1995 he went to Leadville and was on the police force. He house kept by his mother, who had again racved to that place. Beckwith lost one eye in his infancy, but at this time was wearing a glass eye, which accounted for the fact that his mother did not know him, although they no doubt say each other often. In January, 1897, Beckwith ing's trusted employee, a member of the Sons of Veterana and claims distinction as the promoter of the G. A. R. drum corps, one of the best juvenile organizations in this end of the state.

Ten years ago the mother began he search for her boy. She has written to towns where she heard of the name of Eberle or Beckwith, advertised and travcled much. She made one trip us far a Sacramento. Cal. At times she cave in hope of ever seeing her first born, but with a mother's faith kept up her scure! A letter to Red Cliff, Colo., finally brough her a reply, stating that there was an Eberle in Newton. She wrote to Mayor Young and on receiving a renly immediately started for this city. Friday evening she arrived in the city, and the reunion that took place in the little home. on West Ninth street was one of the napplest in this town. Her name is now Gallon and her husband is a car inspector another son, with whom Harry will visit in a few days. He has not had a vacation since he began work here.

SECRETARY DAY'S REPORT

To the National Society of the Congregational Church.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Home Mission society was held in Boston yesterday. Its chief feature was the report of the new secretary, the Rev. Charles O. Day, who was in Wichita some months ago. He said.

"Fairmount college, at Wichita, Kaneus, under the lead of the veteran Dr. J. N. Morrison, shows to the careful observer a' degree of enthusiasm, scholarly activity and hopefulness on the part of the facuity and pupils which at once indicates its reason for being and guarantees its final success. The unfortunate financial hitory of Wichita is well known; but the city is surely recovering material strength. olitical influence is gravitating that way, and the growing confidence of the people is bound to express itself in the development of the college. The days through which the college is now passing are financially more severe than any which fort to guarantee current expenses, retain its splendid faculty and meet the pressing hopes of eager students will set the problem of the institution's future on the side of questions solved. Whatever discussion might have arisen at the inception of the college, a discussion finding its parallel n the history of some of our best New England colleges, the spiendid growth of population, increased prosperity and the mening up of the great regions of the outh and west will ere long cause these ssions to be forgotten as even now they are beginning to be surveyed in a kindly spirit by those who long debuted ucated product is being turned out from Fairmount, which is beginning to do honor to the college, the city and the
